

The people need to hear different opinions in broadcasting. By allowing monopolies in the media, you are taking away my freedom as an American. I am strong against the proposed changes.